Notice of Insurance Information Practices

To issue an insurance policy we need to obtain information about you and any other persons proposed for insurance. Some of that information will come from you and some will come from other sources. As part of our normal procedure for processing your application, an investigative consumer report may be prepared whereby information is obtained through personal interviews with your neighbors, friends or others with whom you are acquainted. This inquiry, if obtained, typically includes information as to your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living. You have a right of access and correction with respect to information collected about you. Address your request to receive additional information or a description of your right to our Underwriting Department.

In the event of an adverse underwriting decision, you will be provided notification in writing with the specific reason for such decision and the specific items of personal and privileged information (and the source) that support such decision. Personal and privileged information is not required to be provided if it has reasonable suspicion there may have been criminal activity, fraud, or material misrepresentation. Some source information requires approval from medical professionals prior to release. The notification will include if such authorization has been requested.

This Notification Must Be Detached and Delivered To Proposed Insured.
